“What does motherhood mean in the 21st century? If you want informed and fascinating answers, read Reassembling Motherhood. A stellar interdisciplinary team of international scholars report on how technological advances, cultural changes, global migration, and variable state policies have transformed mothering. This landmark book will not only shape scholarly research but also instruct policymakers and engage a wide audience.”

Viviana A. Zelizer, Lloyd Cotsen ’50 Professor of Sociology at Princeton University and author of Economic Lives: How Culture Shapes the Economy

PANEL DISCUSSION AND BOOK LAUNCH

Wednesday, Nov. 1 | 5-7 PM
International Affairs Building | Room 1512
420 W. 118th Street

Introduction: Yasmine Ergas, Director of the Specialization on Gender and Public Policy

Panelists: Mayor Michael Nutter (SIPA), Heather Hurwitz (Barnard College), Alice Kessler-Harris (Columbia) Premilla Nadasen (Barnard College), Shahra Razavi (UN Women).