

STUDENT CERTIFICATION OF EXAMINATION PERFORMANCE

I certify that (a) I have not received any information (other than that provided by the instructor or the Law School generally) regarding the content of this examination, (b) since receiving the examination, I have not discussed it (verbally, electronically, or in writing) with any other student taking the examination, (c) I have not and will not share or communicate, directly or indirectly, any information relating to the nature or content of, or answers to, this examination to any student who has not yet taken this examination, (d) I have complied fully with all instructions given by the instructor relating to this examination, including any restrictions on access to materials or sources of information.

I understand that the relative autonomy of the legal profession carries with it special obligations of self-regulation as outlined in the Columbia Law School Bulletin and that any violation of this certification will subject me to discipline, including possible suspension or expulsion by the Law School, declination to certify for admission to the Bar, and sharing of information about discipline with Bar admissions committees. I further understand that the Law School is required to notify Bar admissions committees if a student has been the subject of disciplinary proceedings, regardless of the outcome of those proceedings.
