Applicants sought for the 2020 Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP fellowship at The Door's legal services center

The fellowship program

The firm is now seeking applications from class of 2020 students with outstanding law school credentials for the fellow position that will commence with the 2020 entry-level associate class. After an orientation period at the firm's New York office, the Fellow associate will be assigned to work on-site at The Door for a period of approximately 16 months.

The Norton Rose Fulbright fellow is an associate of Norton Rose Fulbright, and receives firm benefits. The fellow reports regularly to Norton Rose Fulbright on the work being done at The Door and attends firm meetings and social functions. At the end of the term, the fellow has the option to return to Norton Rose Fulbright in a mutually agreeable practice team, which will be based on the current needs of our firm.

Legal work at The Door

The Door is New York's premier youth development agency. Located in the SoHo section of New York City, The Door serves young people, aged 12-21 years, primarily from low-income families. The Door's legal services center was established in 1992 to address the lack of free legal services for youth in New York City in need of help with their legal problems. The center provides a broad range of counseling and advocacy services in civil matters, including family law issues involving paternity, child support, divorce, domestic violence, child custody and visitation rights; juvenile matters including emancipation, the rights of youth in foster care and obtaining government benefits; immigration issues for undocumented clients; employment issues, such as unpaid wages; and issues in handling difficulties at school and with the police.

Please submit applications to jeniea.howard@nortonrosefulbright.com no later than Friday, October 16th. Applications should include a cover letter/statement of interest, resume and transcript.
