

Columbia Law School Visiting Scholars Program: Request for Early and/or Expedited Response

Please email this form to IntlProgramsManager@law.columbia.edu

Columbia Law School's Visiting Scholars program will generally not review applications, regardless of when submitted, until shortly after the deadline associated with each respective intake period. Absent the Law School's accommodation of a request to expedite processing, applicants should anticipate that a response will take approximately eight weeks.

Under extraordinary circumstances, such as when a letter is required to meet the requirements of a prospective funding source, individuals who have already submitted a Visiting Scholar application may use this form to request an early and/or expedited Letter of Confirmation. An official Letter of Invitation will then be forthcoming at the normal time.

Applicants should anticipate, however, that the Law School will not be in a position to accommodate their requests.
