

Mai Ratakonda '11, Senior Staff Attorney, Public Policy Litigation and Law, Planned Parenthood Federation of America

Following two federal clerkships, Mai Ratakonda has been a litigator at Planned Parenthood Federation of America's Public Policy Litigation and Law Department since 2013. Since joining the team, she has been involved in challenges to numerous laws across the country that attempt to restrict patients' access to comprehensive reproductive health care. These include challenging several previability bans on abortion, Texas's attempt to terminate Planned Parenthood from Medicaid, Tennessee's mandatory waiting period requirement, and many, many abortion restrictions in Arkansas.
