DEAR GRADUATES,

Welcome back to Columbia! We are thrilled you have chosen to return to campus and celebrate this milestone occasion. Reunion is a chance to reaffirm your bond with Columbia Law School and each other. Thanks to the hard work of your class committees, this weekend’s programming is filled with opportunities to bolster your professional networks, engage with faculty and other leading experts on pressing legal issues, and above all, reconnect with old friends and make new ones. Our community’s strength comes from its members, particularly our exceptional alumni, and I am deeply thankful for your enthusiasm and dedication to our school.

Warm regards,

Gillian Lester

Dean and Lucy G. Moses Professor of Law
Welcome to Reunion Weekend! The celebration kicks off with an opportunity to connect socially with your classmates and other celebrants in this reunion cycle, followed by affinity group meetups.

Special thanks to Mark Kaplan ’53, Judith A. Gelb ’58, and Robert O. Lehrman ’58, for their outreach and encouragement to the Classes of 1953 and 1958.
Launched in 2017, The Campaign for Columbia Law set ambitious goals: Raise $300 million to attract and support faculty, expand student access, grow experiential learning opportunities, and create a new vision for the Law Library. Five years and more than 12,000 donors later, the initiative exceeded the original target, raising $325 million, thanks to support from Columbia Law’s global community. The successful culmination of the Campaign celebrates the Law School’s storied tradition as a force in the world and ensures that the school’s community continues to make a difference for generations to come.
