INTER-DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION SESSION
(FOR STUDENTS IN BUSINESS, LAW, JOURNALISM, MEDICINE, AND SEMINARY)

FELLOWSHIPS AT AUSCHWITZ
FOR THE STUDY OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

Thursday, December 4, 4:00-5:00 PM
Columbia Journalism School, Room 607B
(All seminary students and those planning to work in law, business, medicine, and journalism are welcome.)

Come hear about a unique 12-day international early summer program for students in Business, Law, Journalism, Medicine, and Seminary. The fellowships include an all-expenses-paid trip to Germany and Poland where students learn about the actions of those in their profession during the Holocaust and in Nazi Germany; and then use that history as a launching point for discussions about contemporary ethics in these fields.

For more information on FASPE programs for Business, Journalism, Law, Medicine, and Seminary students, see www.faspe.info.