Life of a Federal Law Clerk

Date: September 19, 2019
Time: 6:00 - 8:00 p.m.
Location: Second Circuit Library, 40 Foley Square, 25th Floor, New York, NY

Are you a law student or an associate interested in applying for a federal judge clerkship?
Are you looking for insights into what it takes to succeed in the job?
Are you wondering what, exactly, law clerks do?

Please join us for an insightful and engaging panel discussion by a panel of recent former federal clerks, who will deliver an insider’s perspective on the job and its challenges and rewards.

A cocktail and networking reception will follow.

Moderator:
John Rizio-Hamilton, Esq.
Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP
Former law clerk for the Honorable Chester J. Straub of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and the Honorable Sidney H. Stein of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York

Panelists:
A panel of recent federal law clerks from the Second Circuit Court of Appeals, Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and District of New Jersey

Program Coordinators:
Travis J. Mock, Esq., Pincus Law LLC
John Rizio-Hamilton, Esq., Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP

Federal Bar Council Program Committee Chair:
David M. Siegal, Esq., Mintz, Levin, Cohn, Ferris, Glovsky and Popeo, P.C.

Visit www.federalbarcouncil.org to register.